GOOD RACING AT LATONIA.

FINISHES ARE WELL CONTESTED AND FIVE FAVORITES REWARD THEIR BACKERS.

Rome Respess Adds Two Races to His Spoils-Funi culaire Scores at Last-Warren

Rides in Good Form.

Cincinnati, O., June 26.—Despite the ordinary card, containing, with the exception of a steeple-chase, no pronounced features, a good attendance was in evidence at Latonia this afternoon. Favorites had their best day of the meeting, as five well-backed choices landed their respective races. They would have made a clean sweep of the card but for a bad ride that S. Flynn gave Apache, resulting in his defeat by Director, a first time starter this year. This youngster at one time gave promise of becoming a good rider, but several falls have apparently taken his courage away, and on the slightest pretext he now pulls his mount to the rear.

The steeplechase culminated in a spectacular fin ish, four of the starters finishing in a close group, with Jason winner by a short margin over Class Leader, while the extreme outsider, D. G. Taylor, landed third place slightly in advance of McIlvain. Three of the starters, Coal Black Lady, Don Irent and Horseradish, came to grief, the first named by unseating her rider, and the others by falling. Jockey Wickline, on Coal Black Lady, sustained bruises about the face and eyes. The other rider escaped injury.

Jockey Warren showed a return to good riding form by piloting the winners of both of the races for two-year-olds. On Mabel Henry, in the opener, he was interfered with several times through Powers' foul tactics on Mercadel, but ultimately managed to land his mount in advance of Cowdin. J. H. Reed showed a surprisingly improved performance over his previous effort and spreadeagled his opponents, Warren having him well in hand at the thirst.

Agent to faind his mount in advance of Cowdin. J. II. Reed showed a surprisingly improved performance over his previous effort and spreadeagled his opponents, Warren having him well in hand at the finish.

J. B. Respess managed to annex a couple of purses with Director and Stiil Alarm. Both were well ridden by the stable jockey. E. Martin. Funiculaire outclassed his opponents in the fifth race and enabled T. P. Hayes to score another victory, offsetting part of his losses sustained in backing Mercadel.

There were a number of departures of race followers today for Windsor. Among owners to ship horses there this afternoon were: A. C. Bellew, M. A. Neff and H. Oots. On fluesday next, J. Marklein, J. Walters, H. R. Baker and M. C. Moore will ship their horses to the Canadian track.

J. T. Combs arrived this afternoon from Douglas Park with the two-year-old Splendida and the four-year-old Smilling Tom.

From reliable sources it is learned that racing this fall will be conducted at Douglas Park, Louisville, Preparations and Improvements are being made at the Cella track, and those who raced at the inaugural meeting will hardly recognize the plant. Among other improvements that have been made at the course is the building of a six furlongs chute which will reach completion next week.

Jockey J. Hogy's apprentice allowance expired today. Gilpin, which started in the closing race, was slightly cut by being jumped on and Warner Griswell, in the same race, failed to show his best form on account of picking up a nail.

Owner Labold stated today that an injury Chulita sustained yesterday during the running of the Oaks and while at the post from kicks by Lady Martha, was of a graver nature than at first supposed and it will be a long time before she will again be fit to race. Ellen-a-Dale is showing slight improvement and is expected to round to shortly.

Edward Corrigan returned today from Lexington. He will go to New York shortly to be in attendance at the sale of his lorses listed for auction July 1.

KENTUCKY BREEDERS IN THE DOLDRUMS

O. H. Chenault of Spendthrift Stud Sets Up a Sam ple Wail Over Prices.

Lexington, Ky., June 26.—All the thoroughbred men of Kentucky are in the doldrums. Overton H. Chenault of the Spendthrift Stud says:

"I have never known conditions so discouraging as they are today. To be ground up in the mill of politics and fanaticism sailing under the name of reform is enough to make a man swear away his prospects for happiness in the great beyond. If I could get rid of this bunch of yearlings I could take it sort of easy with the weanlings, for I would have another twelve months in which to figure on disposing of them. To make anything on my investment I have got to average $400 per head for my yearlings. It costs me $160 per head for every yearling I raise from the time he is weaned until I puthim into the sale ring. Back of that is the cost of my stallions and mares and their keep and each yearling represents so much of that in addition to his cost from weaning time. I produce all of my provender and I employ no overseers at fancy salaries, so my yearlings do not stand me as much to raise as do those of many of my friends and neighbors. I should not be surprised if I were informed that every yearling produced at Castleton costs Mr. Keene more than $1,000. The cost per yearling to Mr. Haggin will figure nearly as much; so at Kingston. Millstream, Nursery, Hamburg Place and other such establishments the cost will run over $500 each. I sold seven of my yearlings yesterday to a horse trader for an average of $50. He will take them to the small towns on court days and will probably double his money with them. They are not good enough for the race track. I have some five or six more that I would sell for an average of $100."

Milton Young said a day or two ago that he would be glad to dispose of every horse on his farm for an average of $100 per head.

EMPIRE CITY'S POSITION IS STAUNCH.

New York, June 26.—Matt Winn, manager of the Empire City track at Yonkers, faces the situation squarely and says: "Before James Butler went to Europe he told me that the Empire City meeting must be held at any cost, that the stakes must be run off as scheduled, and that a full complement of overnight events should be arranged for the horsemen. Mr. Butler is in racing to stay and does not believe that the sport will die. Expense is nothing to him and Yonkers will see a high class race meeting no matter whether big money is lost or not."

CORRIGAN YOUNGSTERS GO EAST FOR SALE

Lexington, Ky., June 26.—Edward Corrigan ship-ped to New York today to be sold at Sheepshead Bay next Wednesday twenty-two yearlings, by Scin-tillant, Ormicant, Marta Santa and McGee.

CONDENSED HISTORY OF THE CONEY ISLAND JOCKEY CLUB STAKES.

The Coney Island Jockey Club Stakes is the rich event instituted to fill the void in racing caused by the abolition of the American Derby. It is not so valuable as the latter race was with its $25,000 of added money, being a guaranteed $25,000 event. Still, it is foremost among our races for three-year-olds and greatly desired by all owners. The absence of Colin and Celt from Year, First, Jockeys, Wt. Second, 1907 Frank Gill . . . . . W. Knapp . . 126 Montgomery this afternoon's list of probable starters deprives the event of some measure of its attractiveness, but adds decidedly to its interest in the minds of the other owners whose eligibles are not to be called upon to meet the formidable Keene repre-sentatives. The result of the only running of the race was as follows:

NEW YORK TEST CASE NEAR DECISION.

Case of M. E. Collins Argued Before Judge Bischoff by Eminent Lawyers.

New York, June 26.—Justice Bischoff reserved his decision in the anti-betting test case which was carried up to him today through the re-arrest of Melville E. Collins, a bookmaker, and the application for his release on a writ of habeas corpus, and instructed counsel, who argued the case before him, to submit their briefs on Monday. Collins had been discharged on Thursday by the same judge because of a technical error in the first commitment.

John B. Stanchfield and Delancy Nicol argued the case on behalf on the racing interests, and Robert H. Elder, acting district attorney of Kings County, appeared for the people. Mr. Stanchfield attacked the constitutionality of the law and argued that the taking of a $5 wager by Collins on the credit system and without recording the same was lawful even under the anti-betting law. Mr. Nicol argued that the making of wagers was not criminal. Mr. Elder, in his argument upholding the constitutionality of the law, quoted Mr. Nicol, now appearing for the racing interests, to show that the framers of the constitution meant to abolish all forms of gambling when they inserted the clause enjoining the legislature to pass suitable laws to prohibit gambling. Mr. Elder read from a speech made by Mr. Nicol before the constitutional convention, in which Mr. Nicol said: "What we want to do is to condemn all kinds of gambling, bookmaking and everything else." "We want your honor to understand that the place where this transaction occurred is not in question." said Mr. Stanchfield. "The fact that the transaction took place in an inclosure known as a race track cuts no tigure." "We agree." Mr. Elder said. "that the place where the transaction occurred is of little or no significance. We contend that if the bet was made by amateurs, it would have been a crime.

"In the states of Arkansas, Iowa, Kentucky, Massachusetts, Michigan, New Hampshire, New Jersey, New York, Tennessee, Texas and Vermont, the courts have decided that betting for drinks was gambling, and various states held that bets ma courts have decided that betting for drinks was gambling, and various states held that bets made for drinks, oysters, eigars and watches were gambling." The court, addressing Mr. Elder, asked: "Do you hold that a postmaster, if he receives a letter for another person which he knew to contain money for a bet, was violating the law by delivering the letter?"

Mr. Elder said that he would not care to express an opinion on that point.

"Chief Judge Cullen, of the Court of Appeals, as late as 1903, held that the making of a wager was not a crime," said Mr. Nicol.

"The late lamented Judge Brady also held the same view in the Todd case," he added.

COLIN AND CELT ARE ALL RIGHT.

Great Colts Experiencing Minor Ailments Only and Will Be Racing Presently.

New York, June 26.—Colin and Celt, James R. Keene's unbeaten three-yeār-olds, are not broken down nor are they even lame. Both were galloped at exercise during the morning hours. It is a case of hysteria which this time is confined strictly to the stable environments of the celebrated pair. The report originated in the failure of Colin to appear on the track last night for his final trial for Saturday's big stakes. Trainer Rowe fancied that he could detect a slight fever in the sheath covering the tendon in Colin's forelegs, and would not risk sending him out for his long preparatory gallop until he had consulted a veterinary. So he sent for Dr. Sheppard. It was finally decided after a conference with Mr. Keene, that Colin and Celt, both, the latter's last trial being somewhat unsatisfactory and he being handicapped additionally with a chronic allment of cracked heels, should not be asked the question in the Coney Island Jockey Club Stakes in view of the very formidable opposition to be expected from Dorante, Fair Play, King James. Hessian, Stamina, Angelus and Royal Tourist.

In tomorrow's great race Colin would have been called upon to concede weight to every one of his prospective opponents. It is thought that the prospect of having to give Dorante and King James thirteen pounds, reluctantly forced the stable to abandon hopes of annexing another rich plum to the already enormous amount won in stakes. Moreover, both Colin and Celt are eligible to a number of strictly weight-for-age fixtures later on, in which they will not have to make any weight concessions.

CELLA OPINES NEW ORLEANS CLOSED.

New York, June 26.—L. A. Cella, when asked what he had to say about the passage of the antibetting law in Louisiana, declared that as far as he knew it would close up both the Fair Grounds and City Park in New Orleans. Cella said he knew of no clause which permitted pool selling at county fairs and under which the half-mile tracks around New Orleans would be able to operate.

ALL READY FOR ACTION AT WINDSOR.

More Horses at the Track Than Ever Before and Many Good Riders Present.

Detroit, Mich., June 26.—An excellent program has been provided by the Windsor Racing Association for the opening of its summer meeting tomorrow. There are seven races on the card, which includes the Frentier Handicap, one of the annual features of Windsor racing. The plant has been placed in splendid condition for the opening. There are close to 1,000 horses on the ground and in the stables surrounding the course. Several strings arrived from New York during the past few days, while lifteen carloads got in from Hamilton and ten carloads from Montreal. Among the easterners who came on are William McKinney, R. E. Watkins and the Zimmer stable. The officials are all here and include Joseph A. Murphy and Francis Nelson, who will act as judges, John Morrow, who will fill the position of paddock and patrol judge, and starter A. B. Dade. The meeting will run until the opening of the New Niagara Jockey Club's mid-summer meeting at Fort Erie.

Large fields are named to go in all of the seven races and in the Frontier Handicap eleven have accorded Martin Daylo and Ellicott var ton wardsts.

meeting at Fort Erie.

Large fields are named to go in all of the seven races and in the Frontier Handicap eleven have accepted. Martin Doyle and Ellicott are top weights and are rated by the handicapper within one pound of each other. Hlacko gets in with the lightest impost. There are more good riders here than ever before, among the jockeys being Nicol, Shilling, Fairbrother, McCabe, Murphy, Rollins, Francis and Rice.

Rice.

Frank O'Neill received word from Fred Burlew this morning that he would ship to Canada all the horses he has in New York with the exception of Chapultepec and Angelus. Chapultepec will be turned out until fall, while Angelus will be turned over to John E. Madden. Frank O'Neill will train the horses up here, while Burlew will go to France to look the sport over there. It is understood that he has an offer to train for a prominent French turfman and if conditions are satisfactory, he may accept.

Gerald D., a promising two-year-old in the stable of William Shields, died this morning of lung fever.

The colt was taken sick en route from Montreal to Windsor.

So heavy have been the applications for stable room that the management has been unable to find accommodations for all the horsemen who wished to race here. All the available stables within a radius of a couple of miles of the track are rented and even this extra number of stalls was found to be insufficient to accommodate the horsemen.

R. F. Carman telegraphed Secretary Parmer that he has shipped fourteen of his string from New York to Windsor. The good lightweight, Guy Burns, will accompany the stable.

WEST CANADIAN RACING FAILS.

Californian Stables Which Went to Alberta and British Columbia Fare Poorly.

Seattle, Wash., June 26.—James Coffey, who shipped his stable from California to British Columbia in May to race over the West Canada Turf Association's circuit in British Columbia and Alberta, has returned here with his horses. According to Coffey, the Canadian racing enterprise has not been much of a success thus far. The patronage, probably because of adverse weather conditions, more than for any other reason, has been below expectations. It was found advisable to cut out some of the smaller towns for which racing had been scheduled. William Durker, who sent a division of his stable over the circuit in charge of former jockey C. Wright, is also back from a flying trip to Calgary with similar reports and his horses will soon return here. He reports the sale of O. A. Bianchi's mare, Marvel P., to a Canadian sportsman for $700.

LOUISIANA TRACK DEFIES BEHRMAN.

New Orleans, La., June 26.—Open defiance of the police was announced by the racing element which conducts the half-mile tracks here, when Mayor Behrman repeated his recent order to prevent Sunday racing. E. M. Woodall, lessee of the Louisiana Driving Park issued a card of six races for next Sunday and a clash is likely.

Sunday and a clash is likely.

Mayor Behrman's order was issued Thursday.
The announcement by Woodall that he would run anyway came immediately thereafter. Mayor Behrman's only remark was to order the police to use force if necessary.

Besides the two half-mile courses, one of which operates at Algiers, the other opposite City Park, the state fair races at Shreveport will be affected by the governor's signing the bill, as he promised to do on his nomination. Opponents of the bill have continued to claim that betting can be conducted under a technicality, but it was the general impression that the half-mile courses would remain closed this winter. Sunday racing has aroused great feeling against the sport.

The Latter Runs a Magnificent Race-Jimmy Lane Takes the Steeplechase-Madden's

Luck Continues.

New York, June 26.—Dandelion ran the fastest mile of the metropolitan season thus far when he led a brilliant field of seven racers home in the Sheepshead Bay Handicap. The distance of the race was one mile, which Francis R. Hitchcock's heroic son of Hamburg—Pansy covered in 1:37½. This is within one-fifth of a second of the track record made by Inquisitor in 1906 and only two-fifths of a second behind the best American record. The real honors of today's remarkable struggle, however, belong to Barney Schreiber's phenomenal race horse, Jack Atkin, which, under his crushing impost of 131 pounds, made the running to nearly the very last stride before he became the victim of a somnolent jockey and succumbed to the admirably ridden and second best horse in the race. Walter Miller rode the winner with all of his old-time dash and finish and was heartily applauded for his fine work.

The Lion Heart Steeplechase Handicap proving such a potent society function that the clubhouse enclosure was filled for the first time this week. The five jumpers engaged were all ridden by gentlemen jockeys and, when Mr. Page, monocle and all, cantered back to the scales after having achieved victory with Jimmy Lane, all the people in his set cheered him enthusiastically.

J. E. Madden's training establishment furnished two winners during the afternoon in Dandelion and Connaught Ranger. Both were saddled by C. E. Patterson in the absence of their owner and trainer, who was unable to be present on account of an injury to his foot from stepping on a nail. Favorite backers had an exceptionally good day, as five of them scored. Improved, though hardly normal conditions, prevailed. Fully 10,000 racegoers were on hand when the bugle called the horses to the post in the first race. Speculation was conducted on the lawn and paddock and both were crowded throughout the afternoon.

A notice was posted that the Western Union Telegraph Company offices at the track would be vacated tonight and their instruments removed. There is notwithstanding a rumor in circulation at the elegraph company's headquarters tonight to the effect that business may be resumed again tomorrow.

effect that business may be resumed again tomorrow.

George Rose has offered himself up for sacrifice in order to furnish the Jockey Club with another test case and was courting arrest at the race track all afternoon by openly accepting wagers, although no money was passed.

Colonel Frank Bartlett, a noted constitutional lawyer of Manhattan, has accepted the presidency of the Personal Liberty League.

Frank O'Neill, former jockey and partner in the B. & O. Stable and foreman Kelly of the same establishment, will race a string of eight borses at Seattle this summer. They will be shipped to their destination tomorrow.

Poterne, the fast French mare, a starter in the fifth race over the grass course, broke down badly in her right foreleg while passing the stand the first time and had to be pulled up so suddenly that she nearly fell after miraculously escaping collision with time and had to be pulled up so suddenly that she nearly fell after miraculously escaping collision with several of the horses running behind her. The path across the track, worn hard by pedestrians, was the cause of Poterne's undoing, as she went down the instant she struck it. General Manager Winn of the Empire City Association, has reiterated his statement of yesterday to the effect that the association he represents will positively run off all stakes and purses as advertised, and that Mr. Butler will fulfill all obligations to horsemen.

Foxhall Keene says that it was a grave mistake to horsemen.

Foxhall Keene says that it was a grave mistake to have started Colin in the mud and rain at Belmont right on top of the severe trial that preceded it.

F. R. Hitchcock had a sentimental wager of $25 cach way on his horse Dandellon today. This is the first bet Mr. Hitchcock has made in several years. "Cad" Daggett has retired for good as a layer of odds and clubhouse commissioner. Daggett says that his principal debtor is J. Brant Walker, who is alleged to owe him $18,000 in markers.

Durgin and Opperman, the two men arrested at Sheepshead Bay on Thursday for sending results of the races to poolrooms, were discharged in Judge Tighe's court at Coney Island today for lack of evidence.

ROUGH RIDING IN PLENTY AT SEATTLE.

Seattle, Wash., June 26.—Results in several of the races today were affected by rough riding on the sharp turns at The Meadows, and several jockeys were fined in consequence. Nebulosus, joint favorite in the opener, was one of the sufferers, and went down in a jam while in a promising position. Jockey Lynch escaped unhurt. Aks-Ar-Ben suffered from the same cause in the second race and closed a big gap after being knocked far back in the early running. All Alone, backed for a "killing," showed little to warrant his support. Altadice, J. F. Donohue and Walter Miller, backed heavily in their respective races, all got off disadvantageously. Luretta had to be much the best to win her race, as she was badly bothered in the stretch by the swerving of Milpitas, the pacemaker.

Preen was shipped east today by his new owner. William Walker announces that all of his good horses are for sale at half price, owing to recent anti-turf legislation.

Roy Offutt made a record today by keeping $3,105 out of $3,337 bet in his book.

WHAT IT COST THE REFORMERS.

Albany, N. Y., June 26.—Rev. Walter Laidlaw, of Tarrytown, chairman of the Citizens' Anti-Gambling League, certified to the secretary of state today that the organization spent $2,694 in advancing the passage of the anti-race track gambling bills.

The expense consisted mainly of theater hire for mass meetings, $1,003 for publicity agents and $20 for a cartoonist's traveling expenses to Albany to attend a hearing.

NOT ENOUGH NATIVE FOALS FOR DERBY.

Blum, the Mexican Horseman, Writes of Change in 1910 Race Conditions.

Lexington, Ky., June 26.—According to a letter received by W. E. Oots from L. Blum a day or two ago, money is tight among the Mexican horsemen as well as it is in this country. Blum had expected to make a summer buying trip to Kentucky and it was his plan to have been here by this time, but he writes that he has been unable to make collections for all of the horses that he took down to Mexico and sold last fall. He expects a change in conditions shortly and has not abandoned his project, though he will probably not come here before August or September.

Blum wrote further that there were registered in feet, though he will probably not come here before a duguist or September.

Blum wrote further that there were registered in Mexico only twenty-five foals of 1907 and for that reason it became necessary to change the conditions of the first Mexican Derby (which is to be run in 1910) to permit of the entry of horses foaled in any country. It was the original intention that the big race should be for horses foaled in Mexico only.

John Whitlow, the owner of the good filly Irfaneh, returned from New York a day or two ago. He is a plater and says that business in his line was so dull that he had decided to come home for a rest. Irfaneh has been running out since her return from New Orleans and it is Whitlow's intention to send her to California next winter.

Charles B. Hill, the manager of Clarence H. Mackay's Kingston Stud, is making preparations to go to New York. He says no decision has been made as to the disposition of the Kingston Stud yearlings, principally the get of Meddler, but it is only correct in that they will remain at the farm

KENILWORTH TRACK NOT FOR SALE.

Joe Murphy's Ideas of Racing in New York-Unfairness to a Noble Sport Shown.

Buffalo, N. Y., June 26.—Joe Murphy, manager of the Kenliworth track, said before leaving for his work at Windsor, Ont.: "Kenliworth Park is not at present for sale to anybody at any price. We have an abiding faith in the future of the property and believe that there is light ahead. It will be found that the New York City tracks will live. Perhaps the great splendor of horse racing, as it is known in the metropolis today, may fade, business may be curtailed, but, especially favored by their environment, with 5.000,000 people at their elbow, the New York tracks may be so able to adjust themselves to circumstances that a sufficient number will be attracted to pay expenses, and, perhaps, a dividend besides.

"But there is no chance for tracks in small communities to exist under the present law, and, when it has been demonstrated that Governor Hughes is a bad shot, that he shot at the big tent, took only a corner off it and killed everbody in the side-show, I think the legislature will find some way to give us a chance.

"I have counseled patience to our directors and that is now the keynote of our policy.

"It has been said by Governor Hughes' organs, and in perfect good faith, too, that baseball, rowing and other sports live without betting, and why not racing. There are many things in this connection which the general public does not understand. High-class racing costs money in its maintenance. Last year it cost us $3,600 a day to operate at Kenilworth track, or over $111,000 for thirty-one days. That, with fixed charges of $10,000 a year, makes $121,000 to be made in thirty-one days of racing. The fixed expenses of the Buffalo baseball team are probably $35,000 a year, and they have from April 15 to October 1 to get that out. Again, the state of New York charges us five per cent. of our gross receipts as a tax, while no other sport has such a burden to carry. Last year we paid nearly $8,000 taxes not our real estate at all.

"It will be claimed that the betting end of racing is wrong and that it should be suppr over racing, but in no greater proportion than over other things that may be weaknesses in human nature. Moreover, racing in late years has been made it he scapegoat for nearly every crime. Men who have embezzled through the machinations of some lower women have thrown the blame on race tracks to protect the names of wife and children. In the last five years I have had half a dozen cases investigated and found that the men who had accused the race tracks of ruining them had never set foot on one. I Hopeless defaulters have rushed to racing to try to recoup, and when the crash came, the sport had to carry the burden of men hopelessly involved before they ever saw a race.

"No one was ever forced into a race track. They are usually located a long distance from the center of the city and are reached only after a journey involving some personal inconvenience. There is no temptation under people's noses. We open our gates to those who approve of us.

"The Kenilworth race track has never made a dollar. It has been maintained at a loss from year to year as one of Buffalo's institutions. There has never been any disposition to run it as a money-imaking enterprise. But the bookmakers wax rich. The ring at Toronto and Hamiliton lost $100,000 this is spring. Last year the ring at Kenilworth was loser in the aggregate. The bookmaker is not always a winner.

QUESTIONS HART-AGNEW LAW'S VALIDITY.

London, June 26.—That the state of New York tained by the passing of the anti-racing bill is the opinion of Judge E. P. Coyne, of New York, who is now in London as counsel for the Jockey Club.

"I suppose my views on the subject will be regarded as prejudiced." he said, "but as a private lawyer I think the bill is unconstitutional, and that, therefore, in the end, it will be found impossible to enforce its provisions.

"Love of gambling is an ineradicable weakness in most men and especially Americans, and the law making betting a misdemeanor, punishable by imprisonment, is a curtailment of the liberties of citizens and therefore unconstitutional.

"The bill was even passed in an unconstitutional way, for to gain his end Governor Hughes called a special election and an extra legislative session. The majority of the senators even did not vote as they wished.

The majority of the senators even did not vote as they wished.

"The bill, if enforced strictly, will kill racing and discourage horse breeding, hurt agriculture and throw thousands of men out of employment. But in the end I am sure the courts will decide that the bill is in violation of the constitution."

NEW YORK'S PECULIAR CONDITIONS.

The fact that the attendance at Sheepshead Bay has increased to about 6,500 or 7,000 a day since a bet can be made, is being used as an argument that if the poolrooms were killed off again, the attendance at the races would be increased and that the gate receipts would be consequently greater. The field enclosure has suffered more than that of the grandstand under the new conditions. Patrons of the field are usually small speculators and the poolrooms, where betting can be conducted practically without interference, have been a magnet for them during the last ten days. The rooms, while conducted on the quiet, have opened, it is said, all over town and particularly in Harlem. It was stated that some of the largest rooms operating above 125th street were not only doing business on the races, but had also installed games of chance. Most of these rooms were out of commission while the Jockey Club's crusade was carried on.—New York Sun.

"LOUISIANA" LARROUX'S SENSE OF HUMOR.

President P. Larroux of the Louisiana "merry-goround" at New Orleans, does not take the abolition of racing very seriously. So many of the horse owners went to him relative to what they should do that he wrote out a prescription on a doctor's blank and handed it to all comers. It read like this:

No. 23. June 23.

Locke bill 2 drams.

Cordill bill 5 drams.

Mix and make into capsules. Take one and you will never need it again. Sure cure for gamblitis.

Dr. Peter Larroux.

GOTHAM BLIND AT SPENDTHRIFT STUD.

Lexington, Ky., June 26.—Gotham, once a noble race horse, is closing his days at the Spendthrift Stud. He belongs to J. J. McCafferty and has been at the farm for about a year. He went blind about eight or nine months ago and his days of usefulness are about at an end. Mr. Chenault had a letter from Mr. McCafferty a short while back telling him to do what he pleased with the old horse. He may be shot.

NOTES OF THE TURF.

That veteran of a thousand turf battles in several countries, Fred Foster, Esq., is at Butte among kindred spirits, and with a small string of horses. Among the well known racing men and breeders to join the Personal Liberty League of New York are Henry T. Oxnard, Major Thomas J. Carson, Herman B. Duryea, Thomas Hitchcock, Jr., and J. Howard Lewis, Jr.

The horses of M. Kraus have been returned to trainer Dan Winslow. Last fall trainer Winslow severed his connection with the Kraus racing es-tablishment and it was not until recently that he returned to his former employer.

HANDICAP OF JOCKEYS.

From time to time Daily Racing Form will publish a table of the comparative rating of those jockeys whose skill in the saddle has already been well demonstrated and of those who have not arrived, but give promise of coming excellence. The handicap will divide these riders into four classifications, of which those admittedly in the front rank of their calling will be indicated by 100, thence downward through 95 and 90 to 80, the lowest classification from which advancement upward will come when justified by good riding. The table will also show the number of mounts, wins, seconds, thirds and unplaced from January 1, 1907, and will be corrected from week to week. The table is smaller than that heretofore published in Daily Racing Form, but contains more serviceable information and is as follows:

Winner—Ch. g, by Juvenal—Taluca (trained by W. J. Donohue).

Went to post at 3:14. Off at once to a good start. Won driving; second and third the same. Jason was restrained during the race through the field and, coming with a rush in the stretch, wore Class Leader down in the last seventy yards and won drawing out. Class Leader, running a good race, was a game contender throughout, but tired in the last furlong. D, G. Taylor went well and showed sudden improvement. Mellvain suffered from interference. Impertinence quit badly after going over the last jump. The others were outpaced all the way.

Went to post at 2:31. At post 5 minutes. Start fair. Won easily: second and third driving. Don Enrique ran into quick forward bursuit of the pacemaker and drew out decisively right at the end. James B. Brady outbroke the others and made the running under a pull for five furlongs and was a tiring. but game, second. Jacobite, shuffled back carly, steadily improved his position in the last half and finished with a rush. Saracinesca, away slowly, closed up rapidly and was prominent to midway of the stretch, but tired. Grimaldi broke flatfooted and was shuffled back, but closed a big gap and is good. Molesey. nearly left, made up a tremendous amonth of ground. Oraculum, repeatedly shuffled to the rear, gained in the stretch. The winner was entered for $1,000: no bid.

Connaught Ranger, bumped at the start, quickly established a small lead and, setting the pace throughout, gamely stood a long stretch drive. Sea Cliff, on the inside, ran lapped on the winner almost throughout and was a very game second. County Fair broke slowly and was outpaced in the early running, but fin-sished fast and is promising. Rostrum ran forwardly to midway of the stretch and tired. St. Faisenay, nearly left, trailed to the stretch, then finished with a rush and is promising. Faultless was always outrun. Hammock Boy showed early speed, but tired.

Went to post at 4:00. At post 2 minutes. Start good. Won driving; second and third the same. Dandelion broke well and was outpaced in the early running, but came through on the inside with a rush in the last quarter and outstayed Jack Atkin in a terrific drive. The latter drew out quickly into a long lead and set the pace to the last fifty yards and only succumbed in the last couple of strides. Dreamer, after being reserved in striking distance pursuit, loomed up like the winner midway of the stretch, but tired at last. Far West ran forwardly throughout and finished fast. Tourenne, unexpectedly outpaced in the early running, finished well and is very good. Monfort, well up all the way, ran a good race. Old Honesty was hopelessly outrun all the way. Parkview showed brilliant speed for half the journey.

Went to post at 4:32. At post I minute. Start good. Woo easily; second and third driving. Brother Jonathan, luckily and forwardly placed, was patiently reserved for six furlongs, then drew out at the half and, after shaking off Beauclere's sharp stretch turn challenge, came away and won as his rider pleased. Beauclere ran in forward pursuit from the start and loomed up menacingly when beginning the last three furlongs, but could never quite get up. Killiecrankie closed up steadily from a bad start into a fast going third. Lord Stanhope was prominent for the first mile, but failed to stay. Prince Ching, badly outpaced in the early running, made up ground in the last half. Waterspeed held his position well. Wild Refrain set the pace for a mile and tired as if not keyed up for such a long journey. The winner was entered for $600; no bid.

Time, 1:01.

Winner—Ch. f, by Star Shoot—Much Ado (trained by R. O. Miller).

Went to post at 5:02. At post 3 minutes, Start good. Won driving; second and third the same, Melissa ran lapped on the pacemaker from the start, drew out in the last quarter and scored finally after a long and game stretch drive. Taboo, outpaced in the early running, came from a long way back into a fast going second and probably was best. The Pippin set the pace for three furlongs and tired. Rubia Granda, well up all the way, was wearing The Pippin down fast for third place. Ethelda helped to force the pace and ran in keen contention to the last sixteenth, then tired and probably was short. Rose Beaumont, badly ridden and outrun early, finished well. Wildpigeon, never dangerous, was eased up in the last furlong. The winner was entered for $1,500; no bid.

Scratched—75604*Hanonia, 110.

ANSWERS TO QUERIES.

R. A., Chicago. Day Star was 2 to 1 to show. H. M., Buffalo, N. Y. Will investigate the J. Mc., Chicago. D mott's present address. Do not know Patsy McDer-John R., Cincinnati, Ohio. Have no knowledge of the location of Emmel Kaley.

M. T., Chicago. On the basis of the field show tickets $22.80 to $5 in Tim Hurst's case. F. J. V., Indianapolis, Ind. The bet on Tigress Lily was a loser. See reply to W. J. S.

Wm. B., St. Louis, Mo. The rate paid on Miss Crittenden was fair and all that was due. M. R., Cincinnati, Ohio. In exact figures $1 on class Leader to show won forty-two cents and $1 on class Leader to show won forty-two cents and $1 on

I. H. F., Chicago. If one backs a horse or an ntry without naming the race action is on the first ace in which the horse or entry starts.

J. M., 29, Cincinnati, Ohio. Under the condition that the Dick Finnell bet was dependent on Temaceo running as good as second there was no action and the bet was a draw.

F. C. W., Toronto, Ont. Both bets should be paid straight. If Loretta Mack had finished second that bookmaker would have certainly held that the bet on her was straight.

H. A., Chicago. The first Keene entry in the Sheepshead Bay racing of June 24 was Peter Quince and Chaplet in the first race of the day. Bettors should name their race and avoid controversies. J. W. B., Chicago. The straight on Holscher and Punky lost. The place parlay on Holscher and Punky won as a single place bet on Punky, being void on Holscher because there was no place price against him.

C. J. C. The turf course is slower than the main course at Sheepshead Bay. Relative length not at hand just now. The five and one-half furlongs of the Futurity course is straight. Of the main course, around a turn.

T. E. R., St. Louis, Mo. An entry is one or ore horses. The wager lost through your own arclessness in not making it clear what race you cere betting on. So far as the entries were concerned, Keene had a coupled entry in both the rst and third races, and where no race was named ction was on the first race in which he had a tarter.

Starter.

W. J. S., Cineinnati, Ohio. (1) A handbook bet on a horse straight, place or show that turns out to be bunched in the field mutuel tickets does not win miless the horse backed runs to the place bet on. The handbook bettor is not backing the field, but a particular horse, and that horse must make good to enable him to win. (2) A bet on a single horse of a coupled entry is determined by the running of that horse. If it is scratched the bet is a draw regardless of where the stablemates finish.
